Practice Areas: Corporate Bankruptcy and Restructuring, Bankruptcy Transactions, Bankruptcy Litigation

With over ten years of experience in corporate bankruptcy and restructuring, Kerri's practice includes first-chair and co-counsel representations of national and regional clients in complex restructurings and financially distressed situations, including debtors, financial institutions, secured lenders and other secured creditors, official and unofficial committees, indenture trustees and bondholders, asset purchasers, officers and directors, equity holders, liquidating trusts and other significant creditors, and parties in interest in a variety of national bankruptcy cases, mostly in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. Kerri represents clients in a wide range of industries, including retail, food and beverage, oil and gas, and manufacturing.

Recognized as a Leading Individual in Bankruptcy and Restructuring in Chambers USA since 2013, Kerri is admitted to practice by the Supreme Court of Delaware, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. She is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute, the International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation, the Delaware Bankruptcy Inns of Court, and the Bankruptcy Section of the Delaware State Bar. Kerri graduated magna cum laude from the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law in 2001. While in law school, she was an Associate Editor of the Journal of Contemporary Health Law and Policy and published Who is Responsible for Fraternity Related Injuries on American College Campuses?, 17 J. Contemp. Health L. & Pol'y 737 (2001). She received her B.A. in political science from High Point University in 1996. Following graduation from law school, Kerri was an associate at Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling, P.C. (now Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney, P.C.) before joining Landis Rath & Cobb LLP at its inception in July 2003, becoming partner in December 2009.
