Practice Areas: Corporate Bankruptcy and Restructuring, Bankruptcy Litigation and Corporate Litigation

Jen concentrates her practice in the areas of Corporate Bankruptcy and Restructuring, Bankruptcy Litigation and Corporate Litigation and products liability.

Prior to joining Landis Rath & Cobb, Jen was an associate with a national law firm where her practice focused on Complex Commercial Litigation. Jen also served as the law clerk for The Honorable Ferris W. Wharton of the Delaware Superior Court and The Honorable Robert B. Coonin and The Honorable Arlene Minus Coppadge of the Delaware Family Court. While in law school, Jen interned for The Honorable Mary F. Walrath in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. Jen graduated cum laude from Widener University School of Law (now Delaware Law School) in 2013. Jen is a 2007 graduate of the University of Notre Dame where she earned a Bachelor of Business Administration with a concentration in Finance.

Jen is admitted to practice by the Supreme Court of Delaware, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. She is a member of the Delaware State Bar Association, Rodney Inn of Court, Delaware Bankruptcy Inn of Court, International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation (IWIRC) and is the chair of the American Bar Association Young Lawyers Division Law Practice Committee.

Jen's recent representations include:

- Representing 2 separate entities regarding an issue of first impression: whether a private commercial arbitration qualifies as a proceeding before a foreign or international tribunal for purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 1782. In two separate actions, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware granted each company's ex parte application seeking discovery for use in a foreign private commercial arbitration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1782.
In re: Application of Stora Enso Oyj for an Order, Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1782, to Obtain Discovery for Use in a Foreign Proceeding, Case No.: 19-mc-00209-CFC (Del. District Court);
